

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Prof. Berger spent yesterday at Wai-anae.

Mrs. W. A. Kinney is quite out of danger.

President Dole will probably return on Sunday morning.

The Kash has a large stock of boys' and wool school suits.

H. W. Schmidt & Son are retailing dry goods at wholesale prices.

Honolulu and Stars at the League grounds at 3:30 this afternoon.

Morrow, alias Sheridan, of conspiracy fame, is said to be seriously ill.

C. L. Wight returned home from Maui on the W. G. Hall yesterday.

J. K. Kamaoulu has a notice of landlord's sale of fishing tackle, boat, oars, etc.

The Wall Nichols Company are making a harder drive than ever on writing paper.

The Wall Nichols Company publish a neat program of the Makee Island sacred concert.

The Board of Health has a notice today regarding the registration of births, deaths and marriages.

A fine group photograph of the teachers of the Summer School made by Williams has been received.

Look out for a hot game between the Stars and Honolulu at Makiki baseball grounds this afternoon.

E. W. Jordan is selling real Maltese lace and ladies' embroidered linen handkerchiefs at low prices.

Wray Taylor will give an organ recital to visiting teachers at Kaumaka-pili Church on Monday evening.

A. S. Humphreys, attorney, has a notice of the hotel known as the Richelieu or Club, which he offers for lease.

The Paty-Mott-Smith wedding was on Monday instead of Tuesday evening, as stated in yesterday's Advertiser.

F. B. McStocker found among the money at the Custom House yesterday a $5 gold piece of 1834, countersunk.

Admire the show window of the Temple of Fashion, its the creation of an artist, a veritable dream in Dry Goods.

T. W. Hobron and a party of friends will go on a shark fishing trip to Pearl Lochs at 2 p. m. today, returning tomorrow.

The Hawaiian Mission Children's Society will meet at the home of C. H.
Kuegel, Punahou, at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

During the absence of Mr. and Mrs.
George Carter on Hawaii their residence is being occupied by E. R. Adams and wife.

A neat monument of native blue stone has been placed over the grave of Chas. L. Dodge at the Halawa cholera cemetery.

"The Greatest Teacher" will be the subject of Rev. H. W. Peck's sermon Sunday evening to the teachers of the Summer School.

Arthur Fitzgerald says he plead guilty to stealing the carriage wheels to save a friend. He says he has a bad name anyhow, and this will not make him any worse.

The Waikiki Hotel, plans of which are shown in McInerney's window, will be built provided a license to sell wines and liquors is given, not otherwise. The improvements will cost $12,000.

Owing to the intended departure of Dr. McLennan, his entire household furniture will be sold at auction by Mr.
W. S. Luce, at the doctor's residence on King street, Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

There is a movement on foot to have Bob Scott produce "Ole Olesen" at the Opera House for the opening drama.
Mr. Scott is one of the best Swedish dialect artists on the American stage, and the play here would be a big go.

W. W. Dimond, to celebrate the arrival of the third invoice of Dorflingers cut glass during the last thirty days, is presenting each of his customers with an enameled Hawaiian flag pin. It makes no difference what the amount of the purchase is. This week he advertises bread knives, corkscrews and lawn mowers at low prices.

Off for Waiatua.

The afternoon train to Waiatua today will take Messrs. Tom Hennessy, Wm.
Coelho, Eli Crawford, Waiatole and Kawi, young Hawaiians prominent as musicians, to Waiatua for the purpose of furnishing music at the church concert at that place this evening, the event being specially arranged to provide funds for the church.

Tom Hennessy and Kawi will handle the mandolin and guitar respectively, and the other boys will do the singing.
It will be a fine lark for the musicians, who are all hard working Hawaiians, the majority of the number holding Government positions.

leghorn. They have a decided silk effect, and just the material for a pretty evening dress. They are yard wide and only 20 cents a yard.

DOTTED SWISS MUSLINS
In solid colors, fine quality in sulphur, pink, black and yellow; perfect shades and only 25 cents a yard.

WHITE GOODS.
We venture to say that we have the largest assortment in town, in plaids, stripes and plain materials, and we guarantee our prices to be the lowest.

LINEN LAWN FOR $2.50 A PIECE Containing 16 yards, and which we guarantee to be pure linen.

OUR LACE CURTAINS FOR $1.50.
That we mentioned last week are going are going fast, and why not, they are a good thing, 3 1-2 yards long and full width, no shrewd housekeeper will let this bargain pass.

LANGUID?

Exhilaration, enjoy mentand effervescence of spirits are the laughter of the constitution. The liver, which sets the whole mechanism of man at work at times becomes torpid; it is then that Pabst Malt Extract, the "Best" Tonic, produces that healthful activity which reacts upon the whole system and gives a lifting, strengthening sensation, by seeking the place which needs it most. With its invigorating influence, the "Best" Tonic will give courage for any undertaking, and obstacles will seem but a joyous test of energy.

Try it.

you will drop off to restful slumber the minute your head touches the pillow. It quiets the nerves, rounds the form, builds, braces and lifts the body and brain from weakness to power. It gives youthful vigor. Insist on having Pabst's "Best" Tonic.
